MEETING PROCEEDINGS

President Jack Edwards opened the meeting and welcomed our guest.

All members should wear their Rotary shirts and pins to the Health Fair on April 6.

John Townsend reported the Millenium Early Act will sell water at the Health Fair on April 6.

Cheri Vana said Rotary will have a booth at the Southland Chamber of Commerce EXPO on April 3 at the Tinley Park Expo Center. Please contact her if you can help. The keynote speaker for the April 19th District Assembly will be Michael Angelo Carusco.

Bill Nuzbach provided discount coupons for Carson's and reminded us to donate to Goodwill charity. He also encouraged us to bring a friend to the April 6 Estee Lauder presentation where the representatives will be knowledgeable, look good and smell great.

The Job 1 Program committee met and is getting ready to start next summer.

Linda Quigliani reminded us of the Business After Hours on Thursday, April 24. This will be a membership drive, too, so bring a friend.

Mary Dunn is still looking for a few volunteers to check for phone messages for the Loan Closet. Please call her if you can help for one month.

$$$$$ The raffle was won by Paul McHenry.

PROGRAM

Our guest speaker was Cheri Vana. She did a wonderful job of recruiting volunteers and coordinating efforts for the April 6 Health Fair. If you haven't signed up for a time to help, please contact Greg Habas. Cheri said we were just a little short on advertisement sold this year. She also discussed coordinating the collection of used cell phones that could be donated to support a family shelter. Thanks for all your work, Cheri!
