MEETING PROCEEDINGS

President Cheri Vana opened the meeting and welcomed our guests and visiting Rotarians.

Millicent Walker distributed a sheet asking for volunteers to help buy the presents for Christmas party at Glenwood School. If you can help, please contact Millicent.

We need your donations to support the Christmas party. The club needs $3500 to sponsor this worthwhile project. Please complete a donation sheet and return to Jerry Palm.

Geoff Slawson presented a $500 Rotary Foundation check to Kathy Kloss, who was representing the Prairie State College Foundation. Kathy was very appreciative and said the money will be used for scholarships. Geoff reported that another check will be given to the youth program at the Illinois Philharmonic.

The Rotary Club of Chicago Heights is selling cases of oranges and grapefruit. If you are interested, please contact Jim Daugherty at 708-602-4126. Cases are $40, one-half cases are $23. The fruit will arrive December 17.

Cheri Vana read a copy of the letter being sent to those who donated to our First Annual Charity Golf. Mark your calendars for next year's event on September 2, 2009

$$$$ Steve Marks won the day's raffle.

PROGRAM Club member, Vreni Mendoza, described Governors State University's International Education Week. There are several activities happening this week at GSU.

Dr. Jane Rhoades Hudak, GSU Provost, gave a presentation on the benefits of international study and understanding. Dr. Harvey Newcomb III, a visiting Rotarian from Evanston, discussed the importance of international education in order to dispel falsehoods and myths.
